Where Legends Begin

EDUCATION WEEK AT CAMELOT RISE

Education week is a busy one for many schools across the state and Camelot Rise PS were no different. The theme 'Celebrating the Arts' allowed students to be engaged in lots of creative activities, some of which (like the North Eastern Victorian Choir) were organized by the Department of Education and Training, and the others were organized by our school based Education Week team.

On Wednesday especially, students were engaged in a variety of artistic activities across the day, and got the chance to participate with students from across the school as part of their multi-age groups. There was Bollywood dancing, origami, collaborative weaving, singing, yoga, French puppets, body percussion, drawing, drama and dancing. We were able to utilize the talents of many staff members and parents to assist us and the feedback from students was wonderful. It was a full and productive day.

There were also family visitors to classrooms on the Tuesday and prospective families came along on the Thursday to see how we do things at Camelot, learning about our programs and people. The school leaders have done an amazing job of showing around prospective families on this day and every Wednesday when we have school tours.

A big thank you to all staff and families for their involvement and an especially big thank you to Karla Nyhuis, Fiona Schwass and Stephanie Marko who assisted with the NEVR choir on Tuesday night. If the performance at Monday's assembly was anything to go by, the complete NEVR choir would have sounded amazing singing at Hamer Hall.

SCHOOL COUNCIL MEETING REPORT

On Wednesday 23 May School Council met. We heard from Junior School Council representatives at the opening of the meeting, who shared their recent work organising the Sports Day activities. These were enjoyed by students across the school. The Junior School Council has been very proactive this year and School Council enjoys listening to their ideas and providing support where needed and where we can.

We heard from Philippa Younger from OSHClub regarding suggestions and opportunities for an increased service and the Finance committee will be considering ideas and making suggestions for the future at their next meeting. There was discussion about developments with the library furniture. This has been quite a long and protracted negotiation but it looks like we might be seeing light at the end of the tunnel. The school community will be informed when we know the time of furniture delivery and when the library will be complete.

Ideas for technology provision and need was shared, and considerations for future directions across the school. From this discussion it would appear that families are seeking an extension of what we currently offer. This year is a self-review year, ready for a new Strategic plan to begin in 2019. Given the conversation about technology, it may be poignant that future school planning places a greater focus on technology.

Sub-Committees shared their directions from their initial meetings from the week previous. Future CRCA events were shared and planning is well on the way for some exciting activities for the school community.

ART at Camelot this week

There has been a lot of excitement in the art room over the past few weeks. With students work being prepared for two major exhibitions and the planning and running of our multi-age collaborative weaving project.

Monash Reconciliation Spirit Country - Exhibition

A number of students have been busy creating a collaborative reconciliation piece titled 'Mending Hearts' that is currently on show at the Highway Gallery. Congratulations to the art captains Jessie L and Larnee G along with the following Year 6s: Jessica Z, Meesha K, Ella Z, Sidney and Erin J who have all taken part in this project in one way or another.

In addition four junior pieces of aboriginal art have been selected to also take part in this annual reconciliation exhibition. Congratulations to Lindsey Z (FG), Ryan T (FL), Issey T and Dihain L (2G) for all being part of this year's exhibition.

This exhibition is only into its second year and we are proud that we have taken part for the second year in a row. All 5 art pieces will be on display at our school once the exhibition concludes.

Dear Camelot Rise Primary Community,

With the upcoming cold nights, it is easy to remain warm and comfortable in our own homes. However, there are many Australians who do not have the luxury of warmth. This term, I will be collecting warm blankets that can be used by the homeless. If you are currently organising your cupboards at home or can spare a blanket, think about giving back to the community and donate.

Clean blankets will be passed onto a charity which in turn distribute them to many Victorian homeless people. Please remember to ask yourself before donating a blanket if it is suitable: Is it clean? Will it keep someone warm? (no rips please).

If you have any questions, please feel free to email me. Blankets will be collected up to the end of this week during Term 2. Please bring clean donated blankets to the art room.

Many thanks for caring,
Mrs Mary Katsigiannis

ATTENTION: LOST YEAR 6 JACKET

A Size 12 Year 6 jacket has gone missing. Please check to see if you have the wrong one. The student is very worried that they may not have their commemorative jumper to keep forever. Unfortunately, it does not have a name. Please take the time to check. THANK YOU!
